8.	TIMELINESS OF MOTION: If your judgment of conviction became final over one year ago, you must explain
hy	the one-year statute of limitations as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2255 does not bar your motion.*
	This motion has been filed under (F)(4) section to the § 2255 statute. Further this issue has also been simultaneously filed under newly discovered evidence that proves actual innocence pusuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2244, requesting authorization to file a second or successive § 2255 motion. However, as prescribed in this motion, this Court hear the instant Petitioner under one of the alternative presented within this motion such as a 28 U.S.C. 2241, or under the All Writs Act.
	See Memorandum of Law.

A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to a motion under this section. The limitation period shall run from the latest of —

- (1) the date on which the judgment of conviction became final;
- (2) the date on which the impediment to making a motion created by governmental action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the movant was prevented from making such a motion by such governmental action;
- (3) the date on which the right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if that right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
- (4) the date on which the facts supporting the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

^{*} The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA") as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2255, paragraph 6, provides in part that:
